

What To Bring

Any time of year

Personal Items

- Prescriptions for all current medications
- Toiletries, shave kit, hair dryer, your normal bathroom needs
- Bath robe
- Photo ID (if coming from the U.S., a birth certificate or passport; if coming from any other country, a passport)
- Sunscreen
- Swimsuit
- Wristwatch

Indoor clothing

- Comfortable casual clothing (non-revealing)
- Gym wear (for cool and warm conditions)

Outdoor clothing

- Light jacket
- Waterproof jacket
- IMPORTANT: Hiking clothes (warm, seasonally appropriate clothing)

Shoes

- Flip flops or sandals
- Indoor shoes (i.e. slippers, tennis/casual shoes, gym shoes)

- IMPORTANT: Sturdy, moisture resistant outdoor shoes with an aggressive tread pattern on the soles* (i.e. hiking boots, sturdy walking shoes)

Equipment

- Small daypack
- Rain gear
- Headlamp or flashlight

Attitude

- Openness to learning, growing, healing, growing, living and loving

Summer (and late spring/early fall):

- Biking clothes (if you wish to mountain bike)
- Shorts

Winter (late fall/early spring):

- Warm winter coat/jacket
- Snow pants
- Hat/toque & gloves/mittens
- Warm moisture wicking long underwear
- Warm moisture wicking socks
- Winter hiking boots or snow boots

What NOT to bring:

- More than two recreational books
- Cameras of any type including cell phones
- Cell phones
- Smart Watches
- Laptop computers
- iPod or portable devices with internet or movie capability
- Revealing clothing including sleeveless shirts, or clothing with graphic designs that drugs or alcohol
- Foods, snacks, candies, soda pop, or energy drinks
- Mouthwash that contains alcohol
- A negative attitude

- Smooth bottomed skater shoes, high heeled fashion boots or flimsy canvas shoes